Genl J. Johnson } In Law Court
advised June December 1863

Defendant moves the Court to quash the indictment in this case for the following reasons to wit:

1. Because the indictment is insufficient to wit.
2. Because no indictable offense is charged.
3. No act of an indictable character is charged.
4. Because the indictment does not charge any act or conduct upon the part of defendant that is the subject of an indictment.
5. Because the whole indictment is frivolous insufficient & void.

Therefore for the reasons defendant asks that indictment be quashed, he is discharged from it.
