John A. Keenington

The Court instructs the Jury that unless the jury believe from the evidence that Defendant within one year before the finding of this indictment, sold intoxicating liquor to E. B. or L. B. Keenington, they will acquit.

2. Before the ~~Jury~~ can convict for selling liquor to a person unknown to the grand jury, the state must prove that such person or persons were really unknown to the Grand Jury.

they are not in danger of persecution.

Of the Jury believe from the evidence that the defendant John A. Dennis, did derive the sum of $1000.00, within one year next preceding the time of the finding of the indictment, in the purchase of an exchange in the indictment, ^{to the person} leaving a license as a druggist thereby, that the jury will find the defendant guilty and assess his punishment by fine not less than twenty nor more than one hundred dollars.
