Excellence of witnesses taken by Patrick Hendrick, a Justice of the peace within Jefferson County Missouri, taken on the 25th day of June 1862, in the case of the State against Mr. Hughes charged with the murder of John P. Appleberry.

Christopher Lepp being called & sworn on behalf the State, says I live in Valli Township Jefferson Co. Mo. I was at home my father's store last Thursday, there was a little difficulty occurred between John Appleberry and John Roberts, in the store, & several blows passed, the parties were separated, Mr Roberts got up, went out the store went 40 or 50 yards and lay down, Mr. Appleberry stayed at the store, after the difficulty between Roberts & Appleberry, another difficulty occurred between Appleberry Mr. Hughes and Mr. Appleberry.
Mr. Hughes has worked Appleberry & Roberts.
Mr. Appleberry stepped out of the door & made out like he was going to draw a weapon.
Hughes stepped up to him & said it would be useless to shoot a drunken man. Mr. Appleberry went in to the store & got his pistol from the Holman.
He stepped out on the porch onto Mr. Hughes. They talked a little while, & Appleberry stepped out in the road, raised his pistol over his head & said he would shoot against any man. Mr.
Hughes also stepped out & said he would shoot against him if Appleberry would wait till he (Hughes) went home & got his pistol, don't recollect what Appleberry said to that remark.

Appleberry still held his pistol behind him, then looked on a few moments, & then cocked it, ~~held~~ holding his fingers on the trigger & his thumb on the hammer every once in a while would bring it round by his side in view of Stuyhs, & once he brought it as far round as the Stuyhs or grabbed it in his hand, the pistol fired & cutting a hole through the Stuyhs' coat, as soon as Stuyhs got ^{hold of} the pistol then made for the porch, the Appleberry in front & Stuyhs in the rear, as they entered the porch, I went out, fearing the pistol might fire & accidentally shoot me, I ^{saw no more} I heard the report of a pistol ~~was~~ gun, ^{the second time} I returned immediately, met the Stuyhs with a pistol in his hand (Cold's 5-shooter) Stuyhs gave the pistol to me, ^{about 20 or 30 minutes after the 2^d report} (Met shows the pistol) I examined the pistol, two ~~the~~ Sellers were only when I returned Appleberry had crawled into the store behind the counter was complaining of his left leg & his bowels, Saw him stagger after words he was wounded in the bowels, could see nothing but the bullet hole, - saw no blood. The Appleberry died on Friday Evening ^{after 20th} June, 1861 this all occurred in Jefferson Co, Mo. I am 26 years of age, age.

Cross examined by depts Atty.
The affair happened in the evening, the parties came in the afternoon, ~~the parties were~~ John Roberts was on duty, - John Appleberry was in a liquor, & appeared to know what he was doing, - did not hear Appleberry threaten to shoot any one,

After Roberts started from the Store, Appleberry Martin & got his pistol, did not hear him make any threats, ~~did not~~ did not ^{hear him} threaten to shoot any one, Hughes told ~~dec~~ that it would be useless to shoot at a drunk man, ~~dec~~ stepped off the porch.
 He warned his pistol even his head & said he would shoot against any man - don't know who made ~~dec~~ make this remark, after the warning the pistol, held it behind him, it was not cocked when he warned it, was near Hughes, ~~dec~~ ~~dec~~ Hughes said he himself has no pistol with him but if he would wait till he went home & get his pistol, he would shoot with him - provided he wanted to, Hughes did not appear to care in difference, don't know who Appleberry said when Hughes said he would go home & get his pistol, Hughes appears at first to be trying to keep ~~dec~~ from committing a breach of the peace, - ~~dec~~ did not appear to quarrelsome that day.
 Neither of the men seemed to be angry.

Thos. Holman Called says upon father, lived & knew ~~die~~ several years. Saw him last in Lepp's last Thursday Evening, was at the grocery. C. Lepp, W. Reid, John Robert ~~W. J. J.~~ Hughes & C. Lushner were there, also. Saw a fight between ~~die~~ & Robert, ~~die~~ made him hollow enough, they were separated then, Robert went out of the grocery across the Creek about 60 yards & sat down, ~~die~~ forgot his pistol, said Robert was getting Rocks & if he came back with Rocks to hit ~~die~~, he (~~die~~) would shoot him. Defendants told ~~die~~ he thought it would be useless to shoot a drunk man, don't remember what ~~die~~ said to this, ~~die~~ & Hughes got to quarrelling with each other, about the fight between ~~die~~ & Robert, don't recollect what was said. ~~die~~ had his pistol in his hands all the time, ~~die~~ stepped off the porch with his pistol in hand, left, followed him, Hughes & said you have a pistol, I have none, if you will wait one half hour I will go home and get a pistol & shoot with you any distance, if you want to shoot, ~~die~~ said he would fight any way, with Rocks, or in a fair fight, thus he did not fear him any way, ~~die~~ ^{about this time} cocked his pistol, & said my life is not worth shot, - meaning a snap of his fingers, & if you want it you can take it, left said I don't want your life, - At I heard no more between them at this time, heard the firing of a pistol, saw them again, ~~die~~ both had hold of the pistol, Hughes trying to get it from ~~die~~, Saw left have the pistol half minute after this, then facing each other, 30 or 40 feet apart.

had the pistol in his hand, Dec had nothing in his hand, — Dec said "Don't shoot me, just as I hear this the pistol fires, Mr. Dwyer fires it, ~~then~~ I saw Dec present the pistol at Dec and fire, then me standing on the porch in front of Mr. Lopp's door, Dec was close to the corner of it, it is horizontal all round about 3 feet high, — Mr. Appleberry had on a vest and this summer pants, Dec was shot with Colli five shooter, (revolver) — When the pistol fires, Dec fell and crawled into the grocery, I was about ten steps from them when the pistol fired, When the Dec & left were scuffling for the pistol, Dec said " Catch the pistol boys, don't let him have it, — I saw the Dec the same evening again, he seemed to be very sick and complained of his lower bowels hurting, I saw Dec fall instantly after pistol fired, the sun was about two hours high when the difficulty occurred ~~the~~ between Dec and left, I think Mr. Dwyer a stronger man than the Dec, he is larger than Dec was, don't know whether the Dec has been drinking or not, — I saw Mr. Appleberry's wound, it appeared to be a gun or pistol shot wound, the wound was just below the navel in the bowels, — I saw no blood, he was suffering considerably, — I suppose Dec to be about my age, 20 yrs. the difficulty ~~occurred~~ occurred at Lopp's grocery in Jefferson Co, Mo, — the Dec appeared a frightened man the pistol was presented at him, after getting the pistol, ~~the~~ Dwyer went back,

Cross examined by Dr. Roberts counsel for right Dec threatened to shoot ~~Appleberry~~ Roberts if he came back with voice.

Hayes said I would rather try to shoot short Roberts if he did come back, for he was drunk & could not hurt any one. He said "never mind, I don't hear Ned say it is none of your business. There was a good deal being said, Ned was not talking the most. They were quarrelling some time before the scuffling for the pistol. I was not looking at the parties when the pistol went off the first time, but I looked round & saw them both have hold of it. I think the quarrel between the parties was to prevent further difficulty between Ned & Roberts. I think three minutes elapsed between the two pistol reports, & that scuffling was going during the interval. Hayes looked like he was mad.

The examination of William Hughes of Jefferson county taken before me Patrick Kindrick one of the Justices of the peace within and for the county of Jefferson aforesaid on 25 day of June 1862 the said William Hughes being charged with Murder of John T. The Appleberry got into a friendly scuffle, ^{with John Strickland} John Appleberry pulled a pistol and said if Strickland hurt his brother he would shoot him, I told John Appleberry that it be a shame to shoot that fellow, that he was a gentleman & means no harm, after coaxing him a while, prevailed on him to put his pistol away. It took me a half hour to do so, then in the evening John Roberts came to Sepp's & got very drunk, I was standing out of door, I heard a racket in the house, went to the door & saw John Appleberry have John Roberts down on the floor beating him, I let them a lone till Roberts hollowed, I went to Appleberry & told him to quit, that the man had hollowed, - he did so, ^{he} & walked round our side of the house with me. While we were standing at the side of the house, John Roberts came blundering out towards us, passed within 6 or 8 feet of me I went on ~~to~~ the house, saying that Roberts had gone after I tried to prevent him from going, told him that it was unnecessary, told him that the man was drunk. Appleberry came out with pistol in his hand, I stepped up to him & told him not to shoot Roberts, by this Roberts had gotten 50 or 60 yards over the Creek, had either fallen or layed down, John said he (Roberts) was picking up Rocks to throw at him, I told John even if he did pick up rocks he could not hurt any one, John ^{said} it was none of my business, I told him I hated to see

To The Honorable the County Court of Jefferson County, Missouri.

The undersigned Petitioner William Hughes, would respectfully state that on the 31st day of June 1862 a Warrant was issued by P. Kendrick, Justice of the Peace of said County, charging said Hughes with feloniously killing John Sp-plebury, - and by virtue of said Warrant, he was on the 23rd day of June 1862, arrested and brought before said Justice for trial and on the 23rd of said month said Justice after examining the case, issued a Warrant to Commit said Hughes to the Jail of said Jefferson County in default of his failing to give his Recognizance with security in the sum of $2500, dollars, the amount of bail required. - Now Petitioner was thereupon placed in the custody of the Sheriff of said Jefferson County, for safe keeping, and in whose Custody he now remains, restrained of his liberty.

Now Petitioner alleges that said imprisonment is illegal for the following reasons:

1st The Commitment has been issued in a case and under cir-stances, not allowed by law,

In this, the evidence shows a case of justifiable homicide and that the prisoner is guilty of no offense.

2 - Even if any probability existed that the prisoner was guilty of any offense, ~~it was not~~ such as was charged, and the Bail required was excessive, and ~~there~~ prisoner was denied the privilege of being discharged on giving reasonable Bail, which he was prepared to give.

Now Petitioner therefore prays the Court to grant him the benefit of the writ of Habeas Corpus, directed to the Sheriff of said Jefferson County, in order that said Petitioner may be brought before the Court, together with all the papers & circumstances touching said imprisonment, that the Court may enquire into ^{the} Cause of the same & after due examination thereof, discharge him from said imprisonment, either with, or ~~without~~ Bail, as may seem just and right in the consideration of the Court,

Now Petitioner states that no other application for the writ of Habeas Corpus in his behalf has been made to any other Court or magistrate empowered to grant the same, Wm. Hughes

petitioner, makes oath and says the above petition and the matters therein as stated he believes to be true.

State that in Jan 1862 I resided in Jefferson County Mo. on Suckum Creek. Keeping store for my father. Applebury came to the store. Applebury & a man by the name of Robinson, had a fight. and A. cuffed & knocked R about considerably. R was pretty drunk. It was if going home. A thought Applebury got his pistol and was going out the house towards the road. When ~~Hughes~~ Robinson was at the door. Hughes in the door. Hughes said some thing to A. I believe about this. It was useless to shoot a man that was drunk. I don't know what answer A. made. A. went on out to the Road 15 or 20 steps. Hughes followed him and kept talking to him. trying to pacify A.
They talked on some time. A. still had his pistol in his hand behind him. ever now and then he would bring it to his side. He cocked it. he had his thumb on the Hammer & thumb on the Trigger. Hughes watched his opportunity and grabbed the Pistol. as he grabbed the pistol it went off. The ball passed through Hughes Coat tail. then they made for the house. with them scuffling ~~with~~ for the pistol. as they came in on the porch. I went of the porch around the house. fearing the Pistol might go off another time. I walked ten or fifteen steps around the house. I then heard the Pistol go off the second time. I don't think it was as much as from there to fire marks from the time they commenced scuffling for the pistol until it went off the second time. It may have been 20 marks from the time they got on the porch before Hughes got the pistol. I met Hughes after the scuffling with the Pistol, a 5' shooter. Hughes was on the porch stile. Applibury went into the house behind the County I examined the pistol. I ^{asked} if there was one or two loads in it. Applibury was sampling. He said he was shot. He was shot in the bowels. I saw him Strippell. Saw the Bullets holes, he ~~he~~ lived 24 hours. don't remember the day of the week he was shot.

 He was in July or June 1862, in Jefferson County, Mo.
 Hughes looked to me like the strongest man. Applibury was somewhat intoxicated. Hughes had been drinking some not as much as Applibury. Hughes said he was sorry he shot him.

William Ross Sworn State was at Lepp's store in Jan 1862 saw Applibury & Hughes there. They were talking & quarrelling in the Road between my shop & Lepp's store. don't know what they were talking or quarrelling about. I saw A - have a pistol, from what I saw, I think it wanted to get the pistol from A. I went and asked A - to give the Pistol to me. He would not do it. I went from there to the well, and when they got on the porch, A - called to me to come and get the pistol. before I got there Hughes had got the pistol. I then turned to go to the shop & when they were back he was turned. I heard the pistol go off. I look around. Saw Applibury standing against the banister. He called to me to ^{for help to go} let Hughes to shoot him again.
 A made a step towards the store door, fell on his face and then crawled into the store and under the counter. Hughes had the pistol.
 I saw Hughes take the pistol from Applibury. I saw A Strippell. Saw the orifice where the ball entered it was in the bowels. it did not bleed much at first.

J. F. Perkins, Inside in Jefferson Co am acquainted with the defendant Hughes also Applebury. Saw A - after he was shot the bullet hole was in his left side a little to the front - the ball entered the bowels I asked him how he was. he said very bad that he was going to die. I said no you want that I hoped he would get well. He answered no he would not - that he felt to bad & suffered too much ever to get well. that he knew he would die. I asked him how it happened - he said he had had a difficulty with a Mr Roberts, and Roberts went off and made some threats, and said he would come back and have the difficulty over. A. said he drew his pistol, and if Roberts came back he would kill him, rather than let him kill him. Hughes said to him (A) to put up his ~~his~~ pistol. that Roberts would not come back. A - said he told Hughes it was none of his business. Hughes jumped at him and swung the pistol out of his hand and stepped back & shot him.

Mr Hughes went into Joe Applebury, & said I am sorry I shot you. Applebury said Mr Hughes you ought not to have shot me. I asked you not to shoot me. Mr Hughes said, John I would not have shot you. but I thought you had another pistol. Applebury said you know I had no other pistol, & that one had been cancelled or passed about there that day and that he knew it was the only pistol he had, told Hughes Applebury ~~says~~ that he backed as far as he could ~~don't know what a~~ and held up his hands and said don't shoot. I think this happened on the 18th or 19th of June 1862.

In the conversation between H & A. (as told H that he had nothing against him, and that he did not know that H. had any thing against him. H said he had nothing against him.

I cannot say myself, that that young man was conscious that he was going to die. all that I know was that he said he was going to die, but his power was so near, I don't know that the surgeon or any one ever told him he was going to die.
 There was a surgeon there that day.
 Saw him dress the wound.

Applebury did not tell me there that day that he had cocked the pistol or that he had his thumb on the hammer or his finger on the trigger. He told me how the pistol went off in the first place that it went off in the scuffle when Hughes was attempting to take the pistol away from him. He did not tell me why he did not give it to Hughes, or why he did not give it to Reed. (A) said that when Hughes wrenched the pistol out of his hands he backed as far as he could throw up his hands and told Hughes not to shoot him. I don't know whether I swore ^{before the negotiators} that (A) told me that Hughes wrenched the pistol out of his hands. (A) backed as far as he could throw up his hands and asked him not to shoot.

J. Cole Swore on the part of the defense was acquainted with Applebury. I visited him on the morning after he was shot. I talked with him. He ~~said~~ told me that if he had taken the advice ~~of~~ ~~that~~ ~~he~~ ~~would~~ that had been given him, he would not have been in that fix. He said he was very bad the D^r then came in, this was about all he said.

J. C. Strickland I was at Lepp on the day of the difficulty, was not there at the time of the difficulty, was there next day. I went and asked the Bay if he had any thing objection to H. Coming to see him, he said he had not. I told him he was in a bad condition, ~~he said~~ ~~to~~ and that I was sorry to see it. He said he blamed himself and if he had taken his friends advice he would not have got into that fix.

vs
William Hughes } Indictment for Murder Instructions

Defendant is charged with murder in the first degree by having wilfully, deliberately & premeditatedly killed John Appleberry by shooting him with a pistol Wilfully as here used, means intentional not accidental, Deliberately means a ~~well~~ state of the Blood that is not in a heat of passion caused by 1st lawful provocation, Premeditation means thought of before hand, any length of time however short Malice signifies such a state of disposition as shows a ~~heart~~ heart regardless of social duty & fatally bent on mischief, and passion to extirpate homicide is a heated state of the blood caused by lawful provocation, Prosecution to be sufficient to mitigate or extenuate homicide as applicable to this case. should amount to some personal 2nd Violence or injury to defendant, mere words of reproach how abusive or grievous they may be, are no provocation sufficient to free the party killing from the guilt of murder,

If you find from the evidence that the defendant suffered such violence at the hands of the deceased, without having brought it 3rd upon himself by any unlawful act of his, and thereupon ^{while} in the heat of passion caused thereby he shot and killed deceased without a design to effect death, but in a cruel and unusual manner the offense is manslaughter in the second degree.

4 If the killing was committed under the circumstances last above stated, but not done in a cruel or unusual manner, then the offense is manslaughter in the third degree.

If the Jury believe from the evidence that John Applebury was about to commit a felony upon Roberts and the prisoner interfered 5th to prevent Applebury from so doing and the defendant necessarily killed the deceased to prevent him from committing the felony upon Roberts then the offense is manslaughter in the 2nd degree.

If the Jury believe from the evidence that the defendant ^{unlawfully} shot and killed deceased to 6th prevent him from committing a felony upon him, and that he shot and killed deceased after the attempt of deceased to commit some ^{great} personal injury or violence upon him had failed then the offense is manslaughter in the 2nd degree.

The law of self defense is emphatically the law of necessity, to which a party may have recourse under certain circumstances to prevent any reasonably apprehended great personal injury which he may have reasonable grounds to believe is about to fall upon him. If you believed that defendant had reasonable cause to apprehend a design on the part of deceased to commit a felony upon defendant or to do him some great personal injury, and that there was reasonable cause to apprehend immediate danger of such design being carried out, and he shot and killed deceased to prevent the accomplishment of such apprehended design then the killing is justifiable upon the ground of self defense and you should acquit.

It is not necessary to this defense that the danger should have been real or actual, or that the danger should have been impending and immediately about to fall. If you believe that defendant had reasonable cause to believe these facts, and he shot ^{8th} under such circumstances as he believed, to prevent such expected harm, then you should acquit. But before you acquit on the ground of self defense, you ought to believe that defendant's cause of apprehension was reasonable. Whether the facts constituting such reasonable cause have been established before you by the evidence, you are to determine, and unless the facts constituting such reasonable cause have been established before you by the evidence in the case you can not acquit in such case on the ground of self defense, even though you may believe defendant really thought his cause of apprehension reasonable.

If you find that the Defendant wilfully killed deceased by shooting him with a pistol there is no murder in the second degree in the case but the Homicide is murder in the first degree, or manslaughter or Justifiable homicide according to the circumstances, that is, if he wilfully shot and killed deceased in malice it is murder in the 1st degree, if he shot and killed deceased in a cruel and unusual manner in 9th a heat of Passion as above described, but without a design to kill it is manslaughter in the second degree. and if Defendant unlawfully shot and killed deceased to prevent him from committing a felony upon Robert then the offence is manslaughter in the second degree. and if the Defendant shot and killed deceased to prevent him from committing a felony upon him and that he shot and killed deceased after such attempt had failed then the offence is manslaughter in the 2nd degree.

If you find the defendant guilty of murder in the first degree you will simply return a verdict stating the fact.

2nd If you find him guilty of manslaughter in the 2nd degree you will assess his punishment by imprisonment not less than three years nor more than five years, and if of manslaughter in the third degree by like punishment not less than two years nor more than three or in jail not less than ~~two~~ six months or by ~~to~~ fine not less than five hundred dollars, or by both a fine of not less than one hundred dollars and imprisonment in the jail not less than three months.

If the Jury have a reasonable doubt as to the guilt of the defendant they should acquit.

Of the day believ' from the evidence that any action has willfully sworn falsely. To any mathematic fact they should reject all parts of his testimony and his falsity and are at liberty to reject his testimony altogether. It is the exclusive province of the day to determine what weight it should be given to the testimony of each witness.

Of the jury believe from the evidence that the deceased was of weak, turbulent and violent disposition, and that the defendant had knowledge of such disposition, the willie circumstance for the consideration of the jury in considering the reasonable cause for defendant's apprehension of great personal injury to himself.

State of Defendants Instructions
Hughs 3

1. If the Jury believe from the evidence that deceased drew a pistol on defendant and threatened to shoot him with, ^{or} raised the pistol in a hostile manner at the accused, and did shoot at him, and ^{that} defendant afterwards wrested the pistol from the deceased and shot him under the belief that such shooting was necessary to preserve his own life, or to prevent deceased from doing him some great bodily harm then defendant is not guilty & the Jury will so find.
- 2 If the Jury believe from the evidence, that Hughs shot Applebury under the belief that Applebury had shot at him, although he had not, then defendant is not guilty as charged in the indictment.
3. If the Jury believe that defendant shot Applebury in the lawful defence of his own person, or that defendant had a reasonable cause to apprehend a design on the part of Applebury to do him (Hughs) some great personal injury and that said Hughs had reasonable cause to ~~apprehend~~

3 Apprehend immediate danger of such designs being accomplished then he is not guilty and the jury will so find.

4 If the jury believe from the evidence that the Defendant, Hughes, had reasonable cause to apprehend that John Appleberry designed to kill him or to do him some great bodily injury, and that there was reasonable cause to apprehend immediate danger, of such design, and Defendant shot and killed Appleberry to prevent him from accomplishing such apprehended design, then the killing is justified upon the ground of self-defence, and the jury should acquit.

5. If the jury have a reasonable doubt of the guilt of the accused they will acquit.
