Murder

Stabbed William Brauman with a knife; depositions; jury found not guilty by reason of insanity

State of Missouri

To any Constable of the County of Jefferson greeting Whereas William Braman hath this day given information upon oath to me Nathan Sullens a Justice within and for the County aforesaid that on the 6th day of March 1861 last past at the County aforesaid one John Harrigan of St. Louis came and made aforesaid via Commitment assault with intent to kill with a Knife by stabbing him five or six or more times; These are therefore to command you forthwith to apprehend the said John Harrigan and bring him before me to answer the premises and further be dealt with according to law

Given under my hand at vs -

John Harrigan } Brought before Nathan Sullens a Justice of the Peace for an assault with intent to kill.

Pinelavilla Hardisty a witness on the part of the State after being duly sworn says, that on last night the 6th of March 1861 Mr. Harrigan and Mr. Brannon came to my house about ten or eleven o'clock, and said that they wanted to get in and stay till morning; and I told them that they might if they would be civil and behave themselves; and they stayed at my house till morning and then Mr. Brannon and Mr. Harrigan got up and went out of the house and when they had been out of the house ten or fifteen minutes I heard Mr.
Brannon hollering to Mr. Harrigan not to kill him and the next time he said that he was a killing him and in a moment or two I heard Mr.
Brannon at the door and when he opened the door I saw Harrigan close after him and striking him or striking at him and I helped shut the door and pushed Harrigan out of the house and shut too the door and then I heard a cratling at the other door and I went and looked it and I do not know which way he Kalligar went off for. I was afraid to open the door for fear he would come in on the wounded man Branan.

Cin darilla ^{her} Hardesty

I saw Scaggs a witness on the part of the part of the State after being duly sworn says, that Mr Byrne came to my house again after this Mr Karrigar and I went with him and we followed him on towards St. Louis to the McCadmon road and overtook him we told him to stop and he said that he knew what we wanted or what we was after Mr Byrne told him he must go back and he said he was perfectly willing for he knew what he had done and I asked him him if that was the knife that he cut the man with and he said it was. I then asked him if he intended to kill him and he said that he did he said that it was the free him he had went here to kill him

Before the undersigned one of the Justices of the peace of Merrimack Township in Jefferson County personally came William Brannan and who being duly sworn upon his oath says, I met this man, John Cairigan, last night. he said to me, I came out to kill you. I laughed at him, and since he might be have better sense. he went on with me, on my horse, I walking. we came on to the house W^m Hardings. it was dark, I did not know where we were, were lost, we staid all night we slept together, he never said anything to me, until morning. I got up first and was going home with my horse. he came and quietly with me, and stabbed ^{me} once or twice. before he could he would kill me. I tried to escape, made for the door he stabbing at me in my back. I got into the house and shut the door. he went round to the other door.

Jerome B Deneish Sheriff

1st If the ^{jury} believe from the Evidence that the prisoner formed a determination in his own ^{mind} to Kill William Branan that this determination was deliberately formed before the act of Killing took place: And that after such determination was so formed he did in pursuance thereof commit the act of Killing in the manner charged in the indictment then the prisoner is guilty of murder

2nd If the determination to Kill the deceased existed in the mind of the prisoner before the act of Killing took place and such determination was deliberately formed; And if such determination is proven to the satisfaction of the jury by Evidence other than the act of Killing then this will constitute murder in the first degree

3rd If the jury find from the Evidence that the prisoner at the time he committed the act of Killing was so insane as not to be capable of knowing that the act was criminal then he is not responsible for his act and the jury should acquit him

4th To constitute insanity a good defence the jury must find that the prisoner was so far insane as not to be capable of knowing that the act committed was criminal

5th If the jury should believe from the Evidence that the person was seriously affected by a fit of jealousy and blind that the deceased had been too intimate with his wife; and that he killed the deceased in such fit of jealousy because he believed the deceased guilty of such intimacy this is a criminal act; And if the determination to kill ~~him~~ for that cause was deliberately formed before the act of killing took place then such killing is Murder. And if the jury find that such determination to kill the deceased for the cause stated is proven to the jury by acts or declarations of the person other than the act of killing itself then it is Express Malice and constitutes Murder in the first degree

6th To convict the defendant of Murder in the first degree the jury must be satisfied from the Evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that he is guilty of Murder in the first degree

7 If the jury have a reasonable doubt as to the guilt of the defendant, they must acquit or will return a verdict of Not guilty

8th That a person may be insane on one subject and sane on all others

9th That if the Jury believe from the evidence that the defendant was so far insane on the particular subject that brought about the death of William Brannon as not to know ~~that~~ ^{that} the act was criminal at the time he did the deed that produced the death of Brannon then they will return a verdict of not guilty 10th Insanity like any other fact in the case may be proven to the Jury by circumstances, positive proof is not necessary.

The expression of opinion by a witness that the defendant was advised to forge insanity without any purpose to suspect such opinion is not entitled to any weight or consideration by the Jury.
