Against Archibald Brooks, Charge with stealing the Marks of hogs belonging to said Stiegel and ~~the~~ ^{the} Conrad Young and taken in the presence of said Brooks, before said the Commick Justice, on the 2nd day of January 1863.

Daniel Stiegel of lawful age being called in the Court of the State after being duly sworn says, I live Valle Township Jefferson Co, live 1/2 mile from dist. I was hunting hogs about 20 or 25 miles. I had lost some hogs, on the 2nd day of January 1863 I found one of them in Mr Brooks Pen, it a barrow, with other hogs, it had been marked I mark with a ^{chip off, moly} ~~small~~ ^{small} ~~and~~ ^{and} ~~underbit~~ ^{underbit} in the right ear, & with a smaller fork in the left ear, Told Brooks when I found it in his pen that it was my hog, he said he did not ~~mark~~ mark the hog, that it the children had done it, he offered to give the hog up to me, a day or two afterwards, I am certain it was my hog, it was 8 or 9 months old, ~~made~~ ^{made} was fat, would weigh 60 or 80 lbs, was black with white belt on body, the mark seemed to have been ^{done} some days before I saw it, the hog I saw my hog out out of the lot, afterwards I saw it in the lot, Brooks told me the children shot my hog up back time, the other 1000 hogs belonged to Conrad Young, Brooks told me that he would give them ~~the~~ Young's hogs, he was willing to give them up.

Young hogs were large, were gray & white,

To The Honorable J. Beckett, one of the Justices of the Jefferson County Court, Missouri.

The petition of Archibald Brooks respectfully sheweth unto your Honor, that he was on the day of 1863, at the County of Jefferson, arrested by the Sheriff of said County upon a Capias issued by the Clerk of the Circuit Court of said County, a copy of which is hereto attached and prayed to be taken as a part of this petition; that by virtue of said Capias the said Sheriff transferred your petitioner to the Jail of St. Louis County; that he is now confined in said Jail, under the control of Philip Bishop, as Jailer thereof upon a Charge of Grand Larceny, and that this is the first application for a writ of Habeas Corpus that he has made since his imprisonment aforesaid.

Your petitioner therefore prays your Honor to issue a writ of Habeas Corpus directed to the Sheriff of Jefferson County and to Philip Bishop Jailer of said St. Louis County, commanding them or either of them to bring the body of your petitioner before your Honor, in order to let him to reasonable Bail for his appearance at the next Term of the Circuit Court.
