If the Jury believe from the evidence that the Defendant did sell intoxicating Liquor in the County of Jefferson within one year next preceding the Eighteenth day of May 1862, in quantities less than one quart without them and then having a license as a druggist. The Jury is informed They will find him guilty and assess the punishment by fine not less than twenty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars.

If the Jury believe from the evidence that the Defendant sold intoxicating liquors in quantities not less than one quart but permitted the same to be drunk at the place of sale
they will find him guilty, and fix the punishment as provided in the 10th section.

If the Jury find ~~there~~ the
did not sell in any quantity less than one quart they will acquit

We the jury find the defendant guilty as charged in the indictment and assess the fine at twenty dollars
