Divorce

Married 28 January 1865 in St. Louis County; desertion; adultery

William Rogge, Plaintiff

vs

Hermette Rogge, Defendant

In the Jefferson Circuit Court. November Term 1865

Plaintiff states that on the 28th day of January 1865, in the County of St. Louis, in the State of Missouri he was lawfully married to the defendant:

That Plaintiff continued to live with defendant as her husband from and after day and year afore said until the 28th day of February last past.

That during that ^{time} Plaintiff faithfully demeaned himself as the husband of the defendant and discharged all his duties as her husband and at all times treated her with kindness & affection, but the said Defendant wholly disregarding her duties as the wife of Plaintiff, offered such personal indignities to his person as to render his condition intolerable in this, that is to say - by calling him a liar - telling him he was lying & that she would not live with him & that she on the 28th Feb'y 1865, abandoned his bed & board without any just cause or provocation & has not returned. Plaintiff charges ~~That Defendant is naturally impotent~~ Plaintiff charges that Defendant has been guilty of adultery.

Wm. Rogge makes oath & says the above petition states the matter as therein stated on true & that the Complaint is not made out of levity or by collusion, fear or constraint between Plaintiff & Defendant for the mere purpose of being separated from each other but in sincerity & truth for the causes mentioned in the petition. This affidavit further states that Defendant has absconded from her usual place of abode so that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon her and that he believes she has become a non-resident of the State of Missouri.

Henriette Rogge Def't } Order of Publication.

Now at this day comes said plaintiff by his attorney and files his petition in the office of the undersigned clerk of the Jefferson circuit court, verified by affidavit according to law, and stating that the said defendant is a non-resident of the State of Missouri. It is thereupon ordered by the undersigned clerk, that said defendant, Henriette Rogge be notified by publication of the commencement of this action, the object and general nature of which is to obtain a decree from the bonds of matrimony, existing between the complainant and defendant on the ground of desertion and adultery, and that unless she be and appear before said court, on the first day of the next term thereof, to be begun and held at the court house in Hillsboro on the second Monday in November next, and on or before the sixth day of said term, answer the petition of said plaintiff, the same will be taken as confessed against her. And it is further ordered that a copy hereof be published for four weeks successively in the Franklin County News, a newspaper published in the State, the last insertion to be at least four weeks before said next term.

A true copy of the order.
In testimony whereof I have hereto set my hand and affixed the seal of said court, this 31st day of August, 1865.
