George A. Fleming, - Plaintiff Against
Susan Stroupe
William Stroupe
Peter Stroupe
Austin Stroupe
Millard Stroupe; Defendants

In the Circuit Court of Jef= ferson County
Missouri,

The Plaintiff states that, on the 25th day of February 1861, he, being indebted to John Stroupe, the Father of the Defendants, in the sum of Ninety five dollars, and in order to secure the payment of said money & interest, executed and delivered to said John Stroupe an instrument of writing intended as a mortgage, conveying to him the following described Tracts of Land, situate in Jefferson County Missouri, to wit, The South West quarter, and the North East quarter of the South East quarter of Section Fourteen in Township Thirty nine of Range Four East, containing Eighty acres. And Plaintiff states that, although said instrument of writing purports on its face to be an absolute deed, yet it was ^{agreed and} intended by the parties, said John Stroupe, and the Plaintiff, at the time it was made, to be only a mortgage on said Land, to secure the payment of said money and interest, - that said John Stroupe, at the time said instrument of writing was made, expressly stated and agreed with Plaintiff, that whenever he paid him said ninety five dollars & interest ^{at ten per cent}, he would reconvey said Land back to him, that it was not a real sale of the land, but only a security for the money he had loaned to Plaintiff. Plaintiff states that in about a year afterwards John Stroupe, ~~deceased~~, leaving the Defendants as his only heirs, that the last two named, to wit, Austin Stroupe, and Millard Stroupe are minors, and for whom Plaintiff asks the Court to appoint Guardians ad litem. Plaintiff ^{avers} that in equity said writing is a mortgage, ~~not an absolute deed, and~~ therefore states that he is equitably entitled to redeem said Land, on paying to Defendaants said sum of Ninety five dollars and interest, which he here tenders to them in open Court. And in Consideration of the premises, Plaintiff asks the Court to order and decree, that, upon Plaintiff paying into Court for Defendants, said sum of Ninety five dollars & interest, the Defendants be entirely divested of all title legal or equitable, in and to the Lands above described, and that the title of the same be fully and absolutely vested in the Plaintiff, and to grant such further relief as may be just and equitable.

Susan Stroup, William
Stroup, Peter Stroup, Austin Stroup and Millard Stroup, Defendants

In the Circuit
Court of Jefferson County, Mo.

Defendants, in answer to plaintiff's petition admit that plaintiff on the 25th of February 1861. was indebted to John Stroup the father of the defendants, in the sum of Ninety five dollars, but deny, that the deed made by plaintiff to said John Stroup, of the lands, described in plaintiff's petition, was executed and delivered by plaintiff merely to secure said sum of Ninety five dollars and interest; Defendants further deny, that it was agreed between plaintiff and said John Stroup at the time, said deed was made, that the same was to be only a mortgage on said land, to secure the payment of said money and interest; Defendants further deny, that their father John Stroup at the time, said instrument of writing was made, expressly stated and agreed, with plaintiff, that whenever he paid him said Ninety five dollars and interest at ten percent, he John Stroup would reconvey said land back to him; Defendants deny, that in equity said writing is a mortgage and not an absolute deed, and ~~therefore~~ that the plaintiff is equitably entitled to redeem said land and paying defendants said ninety five dollars and interest

Defendants in answer further state and aver, that the debt of plaintiff in favor of John Stroup accrued ^{long} before said 25th of February 1861, that plaintiff became indebted to said John Stroup on the 15th day of January 1859, in the sum of seventy dollars, that plaintiff for this sum gave to said John Stroup his certain promissory Note, dated said 15th of January 1859, payable 12 months after date with ten percent interest, and that plaintiff for the security of this Note executed and delivered to said John Stroup a Deed of mortgage on the land in plaintiffs petition described; Defendants further state, that on the 25th of February 1861, said debt and interest, ^{and a debt of $10.00 supererogated} amounted to ninety five dollars, and that on the last mentioned day plaintiff for said debt of ninety five dollars executed and delivered to John Stroup, the father of defendants the deed in fee simple, which in plain

This petition is stated to be only a mortgage and that the conveyance of said land was intended to be an unconditional conveyance.

Q. Was you present when the plaintiff executed a deed to John Straupe, the father of the defendants? some four or five years ago. if so, state what was the intention, understanding and object of the parties making that deed?

A. I was present, and took the acknowledgment of Mr. and Mrs. Fleming. after I was done Mr. John Straupe turned to me and said this is not a real deed or bonified sale, my friend Fleming is a little hard up and I lent him some money and this deed is to secure the same, and when he pays the money back the land is to be his and I am to make him a deed for it again
