Evidence for the state,

Catharine Boman being sworn states that I live in Jefferson Co. Mo. on Lewis's land on the Meramec river, wife of Sanders Boman, I know Henry Turner, is the defendant in court. I did see Turner on Lewis's place on Wednesday last I think, on same day Boman's cow was shot.
Henry Turner sent Dantz's boy to our home for my husband to come down there to Mr. Jackson. I told the boy to tell Turner my husband had gone to Krusvick, & the left & in about 20 minutes I heard gun fire down at our stable where the cow was in a pen, I got up & went down there to see whether the cow was dead or not, when I got there I found the cow standing about 100 yards out of the pen with blood running down her face.
I saw Turner going down the road from the cow with a gun in his hand. The blood was all running down the cows face right smart. She was a milk cow. The gun was a double barrel shot gun. I saw him before this that morning. I heard him say he allowed to have run out of my husband that morning god damn him - and that he was going to have $3²⁵ out of Bomer for the cow an cow had destroyed & Bull was to pay 75 Cts. & if he did not get that he would shoot the cow He said this to my husband that morning & further said he would shoot the cow if he did & went to kill the next minute if my husband did not save him. This was in the morning about the time the passenger train passed & shot cow about the time the freight passed. This all happened in Jefferson County, Mo. She was in the pen but not tied that morning - x. Crops examined. I did not see him fire the gun he was going from the pen & he said he would shoot her. The cow was afraid after she was shot for me to come near her. I tried to coax her with a medicine of corn. she stood around a good deal before the gun fired. & then must have heard gun go off. & I must not have and asked my boy what gun was that the said Henry Lunn had shot Emily Brown cow, & I must not have seen the cow standing out side of pen & must up to him & the blood was coming out of his head down his face.

 Lunn was coming down from where the cow was with gun on shoulder.
 I asked had he shot cow, he said yes. I asked was she down he said no she was up. Henry was living at Kimmick at this time. The cow was put in pen before he went to Kimmick Camp Examination

I did not see Henry shoot the cow. He said he was going to do it. Attest H. M. Gaeher, D. M. ^{his} ² early

I know Henry Lunn. This cow of Brown was shot last Tuesday (Dec. 19) Lunn must have shot the cow. - Lunn got in my door & swore he hid away if he did not shoot her before he left there when I heard gun fire I went up there & saw the cow, she was shot in face Lunn had then turned & was going down the road with gun on shoulder or under his arm.

I did not see him shoot the cow he said he would not let Lunn & Jackson

Samuel Barner,

I know Mary Turner, we lived about 100 yards apart for the last year or two in Jefferson County on the Carvins farm. He have had difficulties he does not like me.
He told me last Tuesday morning on the place where I lived that he would shoot the cow if I did not pay him the amount of money Jim Bell did not want to pay. He wanted me to go down and tell Jackson that I would pay the money. I told him I wanted to see Jim Bell before I told Jackson I would pay it.
Then he told me to put the bracket down & go with him to see Bell. & he said Aunt Marys Jerry told him the same thing Bell did. I then told him I would go to Jackson & see Jerry & he went on to Jacksons called up Jerry and asked him if the cow was eating off of Turners field & he said she was then standing over a shock that was down but she was not eating it. I then told him I had to go home to do something & then I would go to turners to see Bell. I went home & he went into Jacksons house & I went & in seen & killed the cow the Carvins are by & went into woods

I went to Kinnisnoak to see Bill, & came 3 o'clock train paper - I met Linn on road below Jeff Smith - I told him that Jim Bill said he did not tell Linn what number of days the cow had been on his field - He said Bill told a friend his that ~~he~~ did say that the cow had been on his field three days - He then paper on & said I put shot in her two. & said well all right walked on - I found my cow about fifty steps from my pen shot in the head and bleeding she was standing still - This was not more than 15 minutes after I met Linn. Linn had his gun with him - Corp Examination

I did not see him shoot the cow but he told he was going to shoot her & that he had shot her.
