Elias H Honey Clerk Court,

By G Thos Morine Deputy Clerk

The "Western Boatmens Benevolent Association" — Plaintiff } In the Circuit Against } Court of Jefferson Erastus W. Smith, — Defendant } County Missouri
 May Term 1867.

The Plaintiff, by its Attorney, states that the Defendant, (under the name of E. W. Smith) by his negotiable promissory Note, herewith filed, dated May the 3rd 1861, promised, for value received, negotiable and payable without defalcation or discount, to pay to the order of George R. Hagarty, the sum of Two hundred and fifty dollars, six months after the date thereof. Plaintiff states that said George R. Hagarty afterwards endorsed and delivered said Note to the Plaintiff, which is an incorporated Company, under the name & style of the "Western Boatmens Benevolent Association", and that Plaintiff is now the lawful owner and holder of said Note, and that the same yet remains unpaid, and that the Defendant is therefore indebted to the Plaintiff in the sum of Two hundred and fifty dollars and the interest thereon, and for which the Plaintiff asks judgment.

The Western Boatman's Benevolent Association, Plaintiff against
E. H. Smith - Defendant

In the Jefferson
Circuit Court.
May Term 1867

Now at this day, comes the defendant & for answer to the petition of the Plaintiff states that he has no knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to whether R. Hagarty has assigned the note described in said petition to the Plaintiff or not and therefore requires strict proof thereof.

Defendant says for further answer by way of counter claim, that Plaintiff owes him four hundred and fifty dollars in gold deposited with said association in Dec. 1864 and still claimed by Plaintiff as Defendant asks judgment against Plaintiff for four hundred and fifty dollars in gold.
