Raney, William
vs

Raney, Jane A.

Divorce

Martied April 1856 in St. Louis; adultery with Garland Whitworth;
desertion

William Ranney, - Plaintiff } In the Circuit
Against } Court of Jef-Jane A. Ranney, - Defendant } ferson County, Missouri,

The Plaintiff states that some time in the month of April 1856, in the County of St. Louis in the State of Missouri, he was lawfully married to the Defendant, - that he continued to live with the Defendant as her husband from and after the day and year aforesaid until some time in the month of July or August of that year, and ~~that during~~ that time Plaintiff faithfully demeaned himself and discharged all his duties as the husband of Defendant, and treated her at all times with kindness and affection; but, that the Defendant, wholly disregarding her duties as the wife of Plaintiff, in a short time became very intimate with one Garland Whitworth, and in a few months after the marriage, went off and separated from Plaintiff, and has ever since been living with said Whitworth in a state of adultery, for six or eight years. Plaintiff therefore charges that the Defendant has committed adultery since the marriage aforesaid, - and also, that she has absented herself from Plaintiff for the space of one year and upwards since the marriage aforesaid without a reasonable cause. Plaintiff further states that he has resided one whole year within the State of Missouri, next before the filing of this petition, and also, that the offence and injury complained of was committed within this State.

Plaintiff therefore for the causes above alleged

Prays to be divorced from the bonds of matrimony contracted with Defendant as aforesaid, and to make such other and further orders and judgments touching the premises as may be just and proper.

Abner Green
Attorney for Plaintiff

This Affiant, William Ramey, the plaintiff, makes oath and says the facts stated in the above petition, are true according to the best knowledge and belief of the Plaintiff, and that the Complaint is not made out of levity or by collusion, fear or restraint between the Plaintiff and the Defendant, for the mere purpose of being separated from each other, but in sincerity and truth for the causes mentioned in the petition
