

November 1867, No. 114

Johnson, Abraham
vs

O'Fallon John

Alienation of affection

Defendant persuaded plaintiff's wife,
Theresa Johnson, to cohabit with him during plaintiff's absence; $1,000 damages

Abraham Johnson, - Plaintiff, } In the Circuit
 Against } Court of Jefferson
 John O'Fallon, - Defendant } County, Missouri
 Nov. Term 1867.

The Plaintiff states that, on the 25th day of June 1867, he left his Residence in Jefferson County for a short time, and on leaving, he removed his wife, Therisa Johnson, to his Father's residence in said County, to remain there until Plaintiff's return. That, during Plaintiff's temporary absence, the Defendant went to see Plaintiff's wife, and by various arts, and stratagems, and wily practices, he persuaded her to quit her home and to go to live with him in adultery. And Plaintiff charges that the Defendant, on the 7th day of July 1867, at the County of Jefferson aforesaid, did wrongfully and unjustly debauch and carnally know the said Therisa Johnson, then and still being the wife of Plaintiff, - and that Defendant, by various, arts, and stratagems, and wily practices, induced the said Therisa Johnson to quit her home in said County, and to live and abide with him in a state of adultery, - whereby, Plaintiff has been deprived of the comfort, fellowship, and assistance of his said wife in his domestic affairs. And Plaintiff states that by reason of such wrongful acts and doings of Defendant, he, Plaintiff, has been damaged in the sum of One thousand dollars, and for which he asks judgment.
