Mr Nettelmar,

I hereby forward

one of the men in the company to have forwarded to her if he should die.

According to her directions I send it to you. Fourteen dollars of it goes to Valentine

Letter from

Oregonian Sea March 27th 65

Dear Sir

Your letter in regard to James Manuel has been received.

Peter Waters has seventy three dollars belonging to James, which he will send to his widow by express.

In regard to his other effects they do not amount to more than four or five dollars, and there being no heir at hand I made an inventory and return of them for turning them into the United States Paymaster. His widow will have to make a claim against the U.S. in order to get them and his back pay, as on one but she can collect it. She can at the same time without much additional trouble secure a pension. Provided they were legally married and she has evidence of it.

If you wish any other information I just write to me.

Respectfully

Thomas Sharp
