Sanguinet H. Benoist, - plaintiff

Against

Charles W. Herbert, - defendant

In the Circuit Court of Jefferson County Missouri
Nov. Term 1867.

The Plaintiff states that on the 21st day of July 1857, the Defendant made his Bill of exchange in writing herewith filed, and directed the same to the firm of Darrah and Pomeroy, at St. Louis, Missouri, and thereby requested the said Darrah & Pomeroy to pay to the order of Darrah & Pomeroy the sum of One thousand dollars, sixty days after the date thereof, and delivered the said Bill to the said Darrah & Pomeroy, who accepted and transferred the same by endorsement thereon, to the firm of Benoist & Sanguinet, (a firm then composed of Plaintiff and Marshall P. Sanguinet, but since dissolved) who on the 20th day of September 1857, duly presented the said Bill to Mr. Darrah of the firm of Darrah & Pomeroy and demanded payment thereof, and which he refused, and thereupon on the same day, the said Benoist & Sanguinet had the said Bill duly protested for non payment, and of which the Defendant had due notice. - The Plaintiff states that he is now the lawful owner and holder of said Bill of exchange (having since acquired all the right and interest of said Marshall P. Sanguinet to the same,) and that the Defendant is indebted to him therefor, in the sum of one thousand dollars, with interest thereon from the 31st day of July 1857, and also for four hundred dollars damages for non-payment of the same, and for which he asks judgment.

And the Plaintiff further states that, on the 23rd day of July 1857, the Defendant made his certain other Bill of exchange in writing herewith filed, and directed the same to the firm of Darrah & Pomeroy at St. Louis Missouri and thereby requested the said Darrah and Pomeroy, to pay to the order of Chester W. Pomeroy the sum of One thousand dollars, sixty days after the date thereof, and delivered the said Bill to the said Chester W. Pomeroy, (and which said Darrah & Pomeroy duly accepted) who transferred the same by endorsement thereon, to the firm of Benoit & Sanguinet, (a firm then composed of Plaintiff and Marshall P. Sanguinet, but since dissolved,) who on the 23rd day of September 1857, duly presented the said Bill at the Counting room of Messrs, Darrah & Pomeroy to their Book-keeper and demanded payment thereof, which he refused, and thereupon on said day, the said Benoit & Sanguinet had the said Bill duly protested for non-payment, and of which the Defendant had due notice. The Plaintiff states that he is now the lawful owner and holder of said Bill of exchange, (having since acquired all the right and interest of said Marshall P. Sanguinet to the same,) and that the Defendant is indebted to him in the sum of One thousand dollars, with interest thereon from the 22nd day of July
